Inside Medical Liability Advertising Guidelines

- 1) Advertising shall be accepted only for products or services that have potential direct benefit for PIAA members and do not violate the Association's policies, including antitrust. Advertisers and their advertising agencies are liable for the content of all advertising material appearing in the magazine, and assume responsibility for any related claims arising against Inside Medical Liability.
- 2)
 - a) For Regular/Industry Associate/International Members – Advertising for these organizations is restricted to products and services that are NOT primary insurance products. Examples of qualifying products and services include risk management products and services and IT products or services. The eligibility of products or services offered by a subsidiary or affiliate of a regular member will be made on a case-by-case basis.
 - b) For Affiliate Partners – Advertising from these members is generally accepted, subject to the approval of PIAA.
 - c) For Non-members – Non-members are prohibited from advertising primary insurance products or services that compete with those offered by PIAA's insurer members. In general, PIAA also does not accept advertising from non-member companies for products or services that compete with those offered by PIAA itself, such as risk management and other relevant educational services or workshop events.
- 3) Publisher reserves the right to insert the word "advertisement" on any insertion that may possibly be construed as editorial. PIAA will not accept any advertisement that advocates any position adverse to the official positions of the Association.
- 4) Advertisers assume liability of all content of advertisements and claims arising from or made against publisher.
- 5) Advertisers will be informed of any required rate changes a minimum of one issue in advance of the effective change date.
- 6) Publisher will inform advertiser if proposed ad materials violate any of the rules listed above at least one week prior to publication of each quarterly issue.
